

C18 Mathematical Physics:

Mathematical Physics conference planned to take place every 3 years, with between 700 and 600 people expected to attend. There are generally no experimentalists in Mathematical Physics conferences. Commission often recommends support only for big conferences. Satellite conferences are not supported unless they are big enough to be considered as conferences on their own right.