

Memo on the activity of C6 (Biological Physics) during the past one year:

Kenichi Yoshikawa, Chair of C6

Meeting among Commission Member:

We had a meeting of the past and new commission members at the 7th International Conference on Biological Physics (ICBP2011) at San Diego, USA on June 19-24, 2011.

Main decisions were as follows:

Next ICBP, ICBP 2014, would be held at Beijing, China. The main organizer was approved: Prof. Zhong-can Ou-Yang.

Role of the commission members have been decided, including the vice-chair and secretary.

Internet Discussion during the past one-year:

On the cooperation between C6 and AC4.

As an actual action of the cooperation, possible joint session between AC4 and C6 was proposed during Intern Conference on MedPhysics ICMP 2013 in Brighton/UK, 1-4 September, 2013. Last week, the organizers of ICMP 2013 formally approved the joint session. Speakers for this session are now under consideration.

The local organizers of ICBP 2014 in China are also welcome to have the joint program with AC4.

On the Young Scientist Award:

Positive opinion to settle the award from next year has been obtained.
